

Samuel Rossum

ASSOCIATE

srossum@yettercoleman.com
713.632.8068

Credentials

- University of Pennsylvania Carey Law School, J.D., cum laude
Administrative Law Essay Competition Winner
Outstanding Pro Bono Service Award
Legal Practice Skills Honors
- Rice University
B.A. magna cum laude
Economics and Policy Studies
- Admitted to Practice:
Texas

Samuel is a commercial litigator at Yetter Coleman and a University of Pennsylvania Carey Law School graduate, cum laude.

He has gained practical experience from a range of diverse internships, including the Federal Community Defenders Office, the EEOC, private law firms, and most recently, the Penn Civil Practice Clinic, providing legal assistance for low-income clients by representing them in state courts. Samuel attended Rice University for undergraduate studies, earning his B.A. in economics and policy studies magna cum laude.